Chapter 1 by Nasus Poro

Runeterra, a vast land with magical creatures, powerful people, and many factions. The largest faction had a misunderstanding. There were ideas popping among the faction, slowly Runeterra was being filled with small little factions which expanded. The once large and great faction was being weakened, until they split once more. There names were now Demacia and Noxus, the two big factions today.

There were many warriors who would fight for either one, some brain like Swain others were all brawn like Garen
